

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
CAPTIA ASSOCIATION (2021-2022)

The CAPTIA association for the academic year (2021-2022) was inaugurated on October 25th 2021. We have also conducted the seminar on `Challenges in Indian Education System due to COVID-19. The Chief Guest of the day was Dr.Arul Suresh (Assistant Professor, Loyola College, Chennai). The orientation began at 9.30 am at SMR auditorium. The Programme was presided by Rev.Fr. Arul Mani Joseph Raj (Principal in Charge) and Rev. Fr. James Michael Raj (Dean of exam cell). The master of ceremony was done by Rahul from M.Com 2nd year and Divya from 3rd year B.Com.

The programme was started with the prayer Service. Mr. VeeraRaghvan welcomed everyone. The title of the seminar was introduced by Head of Commerce Department Mr. A. Suresh Kumar.

Then our Principal felicitated the Chief Guest and inaugurated the Capita Association. He gave a short introduction about the Importance of Association and orientation programme and the learning from the outside of the textbook related to commerce field.

Ms. Jency (Assistant Professor) introduced the Chief Guest of the day.

The Guest lecture was given by Dr. Arul Suresh he gave a brief introduction about the himself .His speech was more vibrant and enkindle the students to think more about the topic. He gave a clear explanation about the COVID situation from April 2020.Then why we came to virtual method of learning, he explained about the difference between offline and online classes, the pros and cons of the virtual education. The difficulties faced by students and teachers at online classes such as network issues, lacking of non-verbal communication, the healthy and filial relationship between students and teachers. Then the lacking virtues attitudes of the student's .Then he concluded the first session at 11.15Am.

The second session began after a short break .This session was about question and answer session. Students asked more questions about the various field in commerce to the Guest lecturer. The Guest lecturer clarified our student's doubts. He explained about the petrol price hike, the effect of spreading message in social media and the online courses which pave the way for a good carrier and moreover he explained about the AICUF movement. The session came to an end.

CHRIST COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCE

At last, Standing Ovation was given by the staff and students to the Chief Guest for his presence and spending his valuable time with us. Vaishavi from 3rd B.Com proposed the words of gratitude and the programme concluded by National Anthem.